

Volunteering with us

Thank you for enquiring about volunteering with the Women and Infants Research Foundation (WIRF) at King Edward Memorial Hospital.

Who we are

WIRF is WA's only independent research institution dedicated to research into women's health. Our research spans across women's health issues at all ages (e.g. Breast and Ovarian Cancer, Reproduction, Pre-term Birth, Mental Health, Menopause, Diabetes, Gynaecological Health and many more). We are closely affiliated with The University of Western Australia and King Edward Memorial Hospital (KEMH).

WIRF is also the charity of King Edward Memorial Hospital. In this role we raise money for equipment and provide resources which results in improved healthcare and better outcomes for our women patients at King Edward Memorial Hospital. This can range from organising cosy knee rugs for our oncology patients to providing tiny premature babies with vital equipment to help them breathe without causing more lung damage.

Our Volunteer Team

The Foundation is immensely proud of its volunteers. Their hard work and commitment directly benefits women and babies in WA through our research grants program and by supporting patients and visitors to King Edward Memorial Hospital. We value the time our volunteers give so generously and the skills they bring to the Foundation. Volunteering for a few hours a week or even once a fortnight helps us enormously.
