

STUDENT / EARLY CAREER RESEARCHER COMPETITION

Are you a student or early-career researcher passionate about improving the health of women, mothers and babies?

The Women and Infants Research Foundation (WIRF) is offering a unique opportunity for students and early career researchers to showcase their research at the WIRF Scientific Dialogue on the 5th September 2025.

The top scoring presentation on the day will be awarded a certificate and a prize of $1,000. Submissions should be in research relating to women's, newborn or maternal health.

HOW TO ENTER:

Submit a brief structured abstract (introduction, aims and methods, results and conclusions; maximum 250 words) before 31st July.

Three abstracts will be selected for an 8-minute oral presentation at the WIRF Scientific Dialogue event on 5 September.

Presentations will be judged by the 2025 WIRF Visiting Professors.
