

STUDENT COMPETITION

Are you a student passionate about improving the health of women, mothers and babies?

The Women and Infants Research Foundation (WIRF) is offering a unique opportunity for students to showcase their research at the WIRF Scientific Dialogue on 28 August 2026.

The top scoring presentation on the day will be awarded a certificate and a $1,000 prize. Submissions should be in research relating to women's, newborn or maternal health.

HOW TO ENTER:

Submit a brief structured abstract (introduction, aims and methods, results and conclusions; maximum 250 words) before 31 July.

Two abstracts will be selected for a 10 minute oral presentation at the WIRF Scientific Dialogue on 28 August.

Presentations will be judged by the 2026 WIRF Scientific Dialogue Keynote Speakers.
